

The Vancouver Sun, Thursday January 12th, 1995

GOOD FENG SHUI

DODGING exploding firecrackers used to ward off evil spirits, Hongkong Bank of Canada's president and CEO Bill Dalton (centre) officiates at Wednesday's ground-breaking ceremony for the bank's new branch in the heart of Chinatown. The five-storey, 2,787-square-metre building at Main and Keefer, scheduled to open in spring 1996, will accommodate Wayfoong ("abundance of remittances") House, the bank's flagship branch. Flanking Dalton (left to right) are David Lee, Wing Leung, Maurice Mourton, Bill Chan, John Ranaldi and Eugene Kwan. Fortune-teller and

STUART DAVIS/Vancouver Sun

feng shui master Sherman Tai stepped aside after giving construction site his blessing.